To whom it may concern:

Great Lakes Recovery Centers Inc. is offering a free Family Substance Abuse Education Group at two locations in Marquette and Sawyer. The group will consist of six ninety minute sessions that will utilize a strength based approach. The focus of these sessions is to develop a rewarding and effective family life and improve the functional skills needed to manage the impact of substance abuse in the family. Each week will feature a specific topic. These topics include:

- *Effective parenting: Developing a shared vision of successful family life
- *Drugs and alcohol: Impact on family life
- *Communication: Effective strategies
- *Empowerment: Strategies that build self confidence and develop values.
- *Setting boundaries: Models that work
- *Support system: Building support systems

The groups will be co-facilitated by Jane Henry and Mary Adams. In order to promote the success of this free family service we are asking for your assistance in sharing this information with your clients. For more information please see brochure and contact GLRC at 228-6545, to register.
